President King provided three documents to Council; the veto and override process, the ordinance and a summary of the items Mayor Bach vetoed, and some options for amendments to possibly override the Mayor's veto. President King spoke about how the budget process has developed and changed since the strong Mayor form of government was established in the City and stated there are two issues to be addressed by Council, the process the Mayor used to veto portions of the ordinance and how Council addresses the vetoes.

President King read a statement about how the veto process should be conducted and how the veto process works in the state government, citing specific court cases related to the issue. He also read City Code pertaining to the budget process in Colorado Springs, asserting that Mayor Bach failed to follow City Code in vetoing paragraphs or sections of the budget when the City Charter only allows for vetoes on line items.

Councilmember Gaebler stated she cannot support overriding the veto due to the divisive nature of the action.

Councilmember Pico provided additional information from City ordinances pertaining to the Mayor and City Council's roles in administering budgeted funds and encouraged Council to stand firm.

President King read excerpts from Mayor Bach's comments on his veto of the budget stating that his decision was a breach of his power and stretching the limits of governance.

Councilmember Bennett requested a legal opinion on the actions of Mayor Bach. Mr. Andrews declined to comment on the legality of the actions as this is likely headed to litigation.

Councilmember Knight stated that since the veto includes two sections of the budget ordinance and City Code only allows the veto of line items, the Mayor essentially vetoed the entire document.

Mr. Andrews clarified the appropriate action for Council to take is to override the two specific vetoes issued by the Mayor.

He will place an agenda item on the January 12, 2015 Work Session for additional discussion on this matter. President King went on to express his disappointment in statements made by the Mayor regarding the overriding of his vetoes. City Council needs to seek a declaratory judgment from the court on this issue.

Councilmember Knight referred to the Mayor's letter of explanation of his vetoes, stating the City Charter does not give the Mayor the authority to create departments, and the Mayor's actions in this situation are illegal. It is the responsibility of the City Attorney's Office to enforce the City Charter.
