

39
YEARS
EXPERIENCE

Jim is a third generation builder who has proven, time and again, his effectiveness as a leader and the value he places on being a true community partner at all times. After assuming the role of President and CEO for GE Johnson Construction in 1997, Jim has worked hard to continue his father's legacy, leading the company with an eye for quality construction and a dedication to realizing value on every project. Key to his success at the helm of the company is his background in hands-on management.

Jim Johnson

CORPORATE SERVICE LEADER

EDUCATION

- » B.S. Construction Science,
Kansas State University

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

- » Hotel Polaris at the U.S. Air Force Academy
Colorado Springs, CO | $170M
Nine-story building with 375 rooms and 26,000 sq. ft. of meeting and banquet space.
- » United States Air Force Academy Visitor Center
Colorado Springs, CO | $32M
Three-level visitor center located just outside the United States Air Force Academy mimics an airplane taking off.
- » CommonSpirit Interquest Hospital
Colorado Springs, CO | $120M
Orthopedic hospital housing 72 beds and includes 10 intensive care unit (ICU) beds, 10 specialty-sized operating rooms, a 14-bed emergency department, imaging with computed tomography, and ultrasound.
- » U.S. Olympic and Paralympic Museum
Colorado Springs, CO | $62M
65,000 square feet, 11 Exhibits, office space, café, retail, hall of fame.
- » Switchbacks Stadium
Colorado Springs, CO | $27M
85,000-square-foot playing field, a multi-use meeting/banquet room, 4,000-square-foot restaurant, sports performance and training facilities.
- » Pikes Peak Summit Complex
Colorado Springs, CO | $56M
Visitor center with multimedia exhibits, restaurant and retail space.
- » The Coloradan
Denver, CO | $144M
19-story multifamily high-rise near Union Station with ground level retail space and two stories of sub-grade parking.