Cradle to Career – A Community Effort

The community's Cradle to Career efforts were born out of quantitative reports like Quality of Life Indicators for the Pikes Peak Region and more than 50 community conversations where individuals voiced their hopes and aspirations for our community.

Cradle to Career is NOT a program but rather a convening of leaders and citizens who are passionate about our community continuing to move toward positive change. The first of five meetings was October 14th and was facilitated and by Carrie McKee (myself) of Pikes Peak United Way and Bill Booth of The Harwood Institute for Public Innovation. The discussion involved more than forty Task Force members from various sectors includes business, education, foundations, government, nonprofits, and military. It focused on what was heard in the community narrative formed from the 50+ conversations. The efforts of this Task Force are to identify three to five shared goals where they already see alignment and momentum around which the community can add leadership, resources, and a collective impact approach to having strong community outcomes.

In the second phase of these efforts, many more community leaders, organizations, experts and interested citizens will engage and develop partnerships, measurements, and more specific details around the shared goals.

As we move forward and in an effort to be fully transparent, we're excited to share what we're discussing and discovering every step of the way and have your engagement around the issues. Check the Pikes Peak United Way website (www.PPUnitedWay.org) on the Cradle to Career page for updates about the Task Force meetings. The Task Force meetings are open to the public and media for any interested observers to attend. To RSVP to attend those meeting, you can email PPUnitedWay.org and she'll get you the details about location and that meeting's agenda. Our next meetings are December 4th and 18th from 1-3:30pm.

We hope you are encouraged by the steps being taken to hold up the community's voice around its hopes, strengths, needs, and incredible potential for continued positive change. We certainly are!

If you have any questions or insights you'd like to share with me, please email me at Carrie@PPUnitedWay.org.
