THE APPEAL STATEMENT SHOULD INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING

- OPTION 1: If you are appealing a decision made by City Planning Commission, Downtown Review Board, or the Historic Preservation Board that was originally an administrative decision the following should be included in your appeal statement:
 - 1. Verbiage that includes justification of City Code 7.5.906.A.4
 - i. Identify the explicit ordinance provisions which are in dispute.
 - ii. Show that the administrative decision is incorrect because of one or more of the following:
 - 1. It was against the express language of this zoning ordinance, or
 - 2. It was against the express intent of this zoning ordinance, or
 - 3. It is unreasonable, or
 - 4. It is erroneous, or
 - 5. It is clearly contrary to law.
 - iii. Identify the benefits and adverse impacts created by the decision, describe the distribution of the benefits and impacts between the community and the appellant, and show that the burdens placed on the appellant outweigh the benefits accrued by the community.
- OPTION 2: If the appeal is an appeal of a City Planning Commission, Form Based Zoning Downtown Review Board, or Historic Preservation Board decision that was not made administratively initially, the appeal statement must identify the explicit ordinance provision(s) which are in dispute and provide justification to indicate how these sections were not met, see City Code 7.5.906.B. For example if this is an appeal of a development plan, the development plan review criteria must be reviewed.

Appeal of a parks board decision.

As this is an appeal of a parks board decision, we are not referencing Chapter 7 of the city's development code. Instead our appeal is based on the following:

1. The Parks, Recreation and Cultural Services Department's deeply flawed citizen input process didn't present to citizens all possible options for the future of Blodgett Open Space and disregarded citizen evidence/input.
2. Inaccurate and/or incomplete information presented by the Parks, Recreation and Cultural Services Department to the public, the TOPS Working Committee and the parks board regarding fire, parking/traffic, and wildlife.
3. An appearance that special-interests steered the decision-making process resulting in a plan which favors a limited demographic, veers radically from the original purchase intent, and replaces a thorough and scientific preservation-based master plan with a recreation-based master plan.
