

Commercial Real Estate

Principal Broker Biography

Gary H. Feffer, SIOR
Principal

After two years as a retail buyer for Goldwater's Department Store; a May Company Department Store in Phoenix, Arizona, Gary Feffer joined the Schuck Commercial Brokerage Company in 1983. There he specialized in sales and leasing in the Colorado Springs Central Business District. Grubb & Ellis acquired Schuck in 1985.

In 1989 Gary was designated as a Senior Marketing Consultant –an honor awarded to less than ten percent of the national sales force. This award recognizes a high degree of professionalism, leadership, high ethical standards, production and earnings.

In 1991, Gary played a principal role in Palmer McAllister acquiring the Colorado Springs branch of Grubb & Ellis. In 1996, Gary and his partners sold the company to Frederick Ross an ONCOR International affiliate. Eleven out of thirteen years, Gary was honored as one of the company's "Top Five" sales agents, being number one in 1989 and 1997.

He was certified as an active member of the prestigious Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR) in 1992. Gary has been involved in over 950 transactions totaling more than 4,500,000 square feet of sales and leasing activity.

In September 2000, Gary established Fountain Colony, LLC in partnership with Griffis/Blessing, Inc., the largest property management company in Colorado Springs.

Gary holds a Bachelors Degree in Business and Public Administration from the University of Arizona. Gary's wife is Kim and they have four beautiful children, Sophie, Army, River and Davis.

How will your qualifications best serve the needs of the community?:

Learning curve will be very short. I understand the complexities of the job and challenges that go with issues/opportunities that go with the CSURA Board.

Why do you want to serve on the board?:

I believe that the projects (both current & future) of the Urban Renewal Authority are critical to the future success of our city. It's my belief that it is important to give back to the community that has allowed me to flourish business wise and to raise my family including my four children.
