Michelle Talarico, Owner/Principal, Picnic Basket Catering Collective, introduced SherryLynn Boyles, President and Chief Executive Officer, Joint Initiatives for Youth and Families (JI), who provided an overview of regional planning for childcare, childcare statistics, childcare desert map, associated costs of childcare, worker vacancies, 2024 University of Colorado, Colorado Springs (UCCS), Economic Forum Report, on-base wait lists, brain development of children. She identified how childcare is critical economic infrastructure, JI building local infrastructure, family friendly summit, teams, affordable childcare problem, responsibility, preferred tax, and election data. Ms. Boyles went over the pro-tax increase message map, most persuasive messages, and uses of funding.

Councilmember Leinweber emphasized how important childcare is to create building blocks for bettering the mental health of adults.

Margaret Sabin, Past Immediate President, Children's Hospital Colorado Springs, identified the role of City Council regarding the success of this childcare initiative in the community.

Councilmember Henjum requested additional information regarding the zip code map. Ms. Boyles stated the map shows where children under five reside compared to the childcare available in that area, but it is a bit distorted in the downtown corridor.

Councilmember Henjum asked what type of legislation is being introduced regarding opening childcare facilities. Ms. Boyles stated they have created a task force to address the legislation being proposed to address certain categories of regulation.

Councilmember Henjum asked when the ballot initiative will be brought forward to City Council. Ms. Boyles stated they have already drafted the ballot language and will begin polling in January 2026.

Councilmember Williams stated the childcare desert map should also include areas of childcare deficiencies based on where people work.

Councilmember Rainey asked if they are currently working with state delegates. Ms. Boyles stated they are currently having one off meeting but would appreciate any delegation support.

Councilmember Leinweber asked how they are addressing current childcare regulations. Ms. Boyles stated they are looking toward more common sense regarding conflicting regulations.

Councilmember Leinweber asked how they intend to measure the success of this initiative. Ms. Boyles stated they will be partnering with universities and third-party evaluators to assess performance.

He provided an overview of House Bill 24-1173, Colorado Springs EV charging systems standards, legislative options, and City Council optional motions.

Councilmember Henjum asked if the City's EV permitting standards are more restrictive than the state's procedures. Mr. Walker stated they are not more restrictive than the state's.

Councilmember Henjum asked why there are so many Tesla charging stalls located at the Lincoln Center and asked if it was free to Tesla owners. Mr. Walker stated they will research that information. Councilmember Gold stated non-Tesla owners can utilize those stalls with an adapter and super charging and the idle fee is high.

9. Items Under Study

There were no Items Under Study.

10. Councilmember Reports and Open Discussion

Councilmember Donelson asked if there will be any changes regarding the time Citizen Discussion is taken at City Council meetings. Emily Evans, City Council Administrative, stated the data shows no impact which would require the Citizen Discussion to be moved to another time in the Agenda. Councilmember Donelson stated he would like a specific time/duration dedicated to Citizen Discussion in the Agenda to show citizens that they value their time and what they have to say.

Councilmember Gold wished Councilmember Rainey a happy birthday and stated that last week was the anniversary of the Club Q shooting and she has had many conversations over the past couple weeks regarding solutions for people experiencing homelessness.

Councilmember Henjum recommended that quarterly or monthly evening sessions be scheduled which are dedicated solely to Citizen Discussion.

Councilmember Bailey stated that he feels citizens have the ability to voice their concerns/questions to City Council with their current practice and met with the City Administration and CSU regarding their strategic planning for 2026. He expressed appreciation for Britt Haley, Director, Parks, Recreation, and Cultural Services, for her and her team and stated he spoke with the third graders at Academy International Elementary on Thursday, November 20, 2025.

Councilmember Leinweber stated having Citizen Discussion later in the agenda does create efficiencies, and maybe a quarterly evening session could be created for individuals who are not able to attend the currently scheduled Citizen Discussion, he recommended more Town Hall meetings be scheduled, he attended the Westside Cares open house, expressed appreciation for the councilmembers who supported his outdoor recreation initiatives.

Councilmember Henjum stated she also attended the Westside Cares open house.

President Crow-Iverson requested Citizen Discussion be added to a lunch discussion in January. Councilmember Donelson stated decisions should not be made during lunches because those meetings are not transparent to the public.

Councilmember Bailey stated citizens can also email or call City Council at anytime to communicate any issues/concerns.

11. Adjourn

There being no further business to come before City Council, Council adjourned at 11:19 AM.
