APPEAL STATEMENT

I. Ordinance Provisions in Dispute

Colorado Springs City Code, § 7.5.502(B) (development plans); § 7.5.503 (minor amendment to development plan); Article 7, parts 2 and 3 (final subdivision plat), and ordinances approving various aspects of this project including Ordinance No. 21-89 vacating portions of a public right-of-way known as Metzler Avenue and Creekwalk Court (file no. CPC V 21-0011321-516); Ordinance No. 21-90 amending the zoning map of the City of Colorado Springs (file no. CPC ZC 21-00112); Minor Amendment to the Ivywild Master Plan to add multiple properties between E. Ramona Ave. and E. St. Elmo Ave. to the area recognized as part of the Creekwalk Commercial project (CPC MP 93-176-A5MN21); Creekwalk North Concept Plan Amendment to expand the scope of the previously approved Creekwalk Commercial Concept Plan (file no. CPC CP 18-00097-A2MJ21).

Stakeholder Notice

- Standard notice: poster and postcards at submittal and prior to both appeal hearings
- Individual communication with appellant due to comments on the Zoning and Concept Plan at City Council
- No other stakeholder input on the subject applications

- The appeal statement is largely focused on stormwater related issues
  - Use of underground detention
  - Use of StormTech Chamber
  - Variance process
  - Maintenance challenges
  - Creation of water pollution
- Argues that adverse impacts outweigh benefits

Analysis, cont.

- Staff contends that
  - All required standards are met
  - All required criteria are addressed
  - Drainage report correctly accepted by Stormwater Staff
  - Appeal criteria are NOT met
- Appeal should be denied, upholding Staff's administrative approvals and Planning Commission's action to deny the appeal.

Recommendation

- Denial of the appeals, upholding Staff's administrative approvals and the Planning Commission's appeal denial, based on the findings that the required appeal criteria are not met.
