Presentation of the Colorado Chapter of the American Planning Association Recognition of Tejon Street as a recipient of the 2020 Great Places Award

Presenter:

Ryan Tefertiller, Planning Manager, Planning and Community Development Department
Peter Wysocki, Planning Director, Planning and Community Development Department

Summary:

The Colorado Chapter of the American Planning Association (APA) has chosen Tejon Street as a winner of their Great Places award for 2020.

Tejon Street exemplifies four key criteria evaluated by the American Planning Association of Colorado for the award:

- Livable built environment: including wide sidewalks, patio dining and updated streetscaping.
- In harmony with nature: integrating with Acacia Park and Alamo Square, connectivity to a robust trail system and use of natural landscaping.
- Supporting a resilient economy: a mix of businesses and promotion of cultural programming, such as engaging festivals, parades and activities like Dine Out Downtown, as well as building and façade enhancement grants.
- Fostering a healthy community: promoting walkability with walking tours, outdoor activities like Skate in the Park, and robust public art that enhances the pedestrian experience.
