A Resolution recognizing Downtown Colorado Springs, Old Colorado City and Manitou Springs as a locally-recognized creative corridor

Presenter:

Karen Cullen, Executive Director, Old Colorado City Associates

Summary:

Old Colorado City is a neighborhood in the City of Colorado Springs that contributes significantly to the cultural life of the Pikes Peak Region. This resolution recognizes Old Colorado City as a “creative corridor” connecting the Creative Districts of Downtown Colorado Springs and Manitou Springs.

Previous Council Action:

Background:

In 2018, several exciting improvements to the First Friday Art Walk program are planned for the corridor described in the resolution. Shuttle service will expand to include Manitou Springs, with another loop to include pick up and drop off in Old Colorado City. Shuttle service is scheduled to begin April 6, 2018, adding April through July and November through December, which is an expansion of the service that operated July through October in 2017.

Financial Implications:
