Ordinance No. 21-50 repealing Ordinance no. 19-95 and amending Ordinance 14-20, section 3 prescribing the salary of the City Attorney

Presenter:

Mike Sullivan, Human Resources Director
Mayor John Suthers

Summary:

City Charter Article XIII, Section 13-80 requires City Council to prescribe the salary of the City Attorney by ordinance.

Background:

It is recommended that Wynetta Massey's annual salary as City Attorney be increased to $212,757, representing a 3% increase effective June 27, 2021. Ms. Massey has received only two pay increases since her April 8, 2014 appointment, on January 1, 2018 and December 28, 2019. The proposed salary is within the range established for City Attorney/Chief Legal Officer in the 2021 Salary Structure.

Previous Council Action:

Wynetta Massey was appointed City Attorney on April 8, 2014, by Ordinance No. 14-20, at an annual salary of $192,276. Ordinance No. 14-20 was amended by Ordinance 18-9, thereby prescribing the annual salary of the City Attorney at $196,723 effective January 1, 2018. Ordinance 19-95 repealed all prior ordinance setting the salary of the City Attorney and set such salary at $206,560 effective December 28, 2019.

Financial Implications:

The salary increase is $6,197 annually.
