KANAME "KENNY" KUNIYUKI
COLONEL (retired), U.S. ARMY
[redacted]

Summary of Experience

Retired U.S. Army Colonel with over 24 years of proven leadership, managerial, and organizational experience leading diverse teams of 16 to 120 Soldiers in Asia, the Middle East, and Europe. An independent, innovative, and driven leader who achieves the organization's mission and objectives while upholding the highest standards of professional ethics. A strategic leader with over three years in the Joint Staff, J-5 Planning Directorate, with extensive experience in the joint operation planning and execution system, global force management, and strategic risk assessment. Expert intelligence officer who supported 3-star and 2-star commands, providing intelligence and strategic information and recommendations to general officers and senior executives. Expert military planner and graduate of the U.S. Army's School of Advanced Military Studies.

Professional Work Experience

Senior All-Source Intelligence Trainer
Cherokee Analytics
Foundry Intelligence Training Platform, Fort Carson, Colorado
02/2024-present Hours Worked Per week: 40hrs
Supervisor: Mr. Richard Cayemberg
- Develops curriculum, training courses, and workshops for U.S. Army all-source intelligence analysts assigned to Fort Carson, Peterson Space Force Base, and Buckley Air Force Base.
- Provides instruction, coaching, and mentorship to intelligence analysts and leaders assigned to 4th Infantry Division.
- Developed a course focused on preparing U.S. Army brigade combat team intelligence analysts to succeed at the combat training centers.
- Proactively collaborates with organizational leaders to identify requirements and develop innovative solutions to meet operational needs.

Program Impact Assessment Research Fellow
The Dixon Center for Military and Veteran Services
11/2022-08/2024 Hours Worked Per Week: 10hrs
Reference: Colonel (retired) David Sutherland dsutherland@dixoncenter.org
Cell: (571) 289-6560
- Provides quantitative and qualitative research analysis of program impact metrics.
- Advises the organization's senior leadership on research methods and approaches.
- Conducts research on veteran-related topics and issues.
- Reviews and provides recommendations to grant proposals.

Corps Deputy Chief of Staff
V Corps, Poznan, Poland
06/2022-09/2022

GS equivalent: GS-15 Hours Worked Per Week: 50hrs
Supervisor: Lieutenant General John Kolasheski
Okay to contact supervisor: Yes
john.s.kolasheski.mil@army.mil
- Managed and directed the staff of the V Corps headquarters element stationed in Poland.
- Formulated outreach plans and other planning efforts to achieve the Commanding General's objectives.
- Planned and conducted V Corps strategy briefs to Sen. Jack Reed, chairman, Senate Armed Services Committee, and to Dr. Mara Karlin, Assistant Secretary of Defense for Strategies, Plans, and Capabilities.
- Engaged Polish military and civilian leaders to advance U.S.-Polish relations at the local and national levels. Worked closely with the Commandant of Poland's Land Forces Training Center to organize and host a visit from Brig. General Thomas Feltey, Armor School Commandant of the U.S. Maneuver Center of Excellence.
- Coordinated a diverse array of staff efforts with the main command post at Ansbach, Germany.
- Anticipated personnel, equipment, and training requirements, and developed priorities and plans to fulfill those requirements.

Corps Director of Intelligence (G-2)
V Corps, Fort Knox, Kentucky, and Barton Barracks, Ansbach, Germany
07/2020 – 06/2022
GS equivalent: GS-15 Hours Worked Per Week: 60hrs
Supervisor: Lieutenant General John Kolasheski
Okay to contact supervisor: Yes
john.s.kolasheski.mil@army.mil
- Director of an organization comprised of over 100 personnel, and 6 intelligence occupational specialties.
- Responsible for building the V Corps intelligence directorate from nascent beginning to full operational capability within 12 months, which included receiving over 100 personnel, and over $24 million dollars of equipment. Personally involved in recruiting leaders and managing intelligence talent across the corps staff.
- Responsible for designing and implementing multi-national theater security cooperation events and activities to enhance the intelligence capabilities of NATO units in the Baltics, the Balkans, and the Black Sea region.
- Led the Intelligence Directorate's quick response to Russia's invasion of Ukraine, and provided relevant and timely intelligence that informed the Commanding General's situational awareness and decision-making.
- Provided intelligence briefs to the Commanding General, V Corps, and other senior leaders across Europe.
- Provided briefs to Congressional delegations, informing them of the current and projected threat assessments for the European theater of operations.
- Met with U.S. Embassy leaders and staffs to coordinate activities and engagements with host nation military forces and organizations.
- Performed personnel evaluations, talent management, and mentorship of subordinates and junior managers.

U.S. Army War College Fellow
Rajaratnam School of International Studies (RSIS), Singapore
06/2019 – 07/2020
GS equivalent: GS-14 Hours Worked Per Week: 40hrs

- Independently planned and coordinated a visit for academic fellows from the School of Advanced Military Studies, Fort Leavenworth, KS, to meet with Singaporean representatives at the Ministry of Defense and the Land Forces Command.
- Coordinated activities and engagements with the U.S. Embassy's Army Attaché.
- Wrote for the RSIS academic newsletter, Commentary.
- Participated in multi-national Track-2 engagements with academics from the People's Republic of China, Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, Vietnam, and India.
- Taught a class on how to write national strategic documents.
- Conducted independent research on how the Association of Southeast Asian Nations could improve their cyber security strategies.

Senior Intelligence Trainer (G-2)
National Training Center (NTC), Fort Irwin, California
06/2018 – 06/2019
GS equivalent: GS-14 Hours Worked Per Week: 50-60hrs
Supervisor: Major General Charles Lombardo
Okay to contact supervisor: Yes
charles.t.lombardo.mil@army.mil
(913) 684-8001
- Served as the senior trainer for all Military Intelligence units and Soldiers who participate in training rotations at the NTC.
- Pioneered a new training concept to improve the training of signals intelligence and geo-spatial intelligence analysts.
- Hosted foreign delegations from Mexico, Israel, and Japan, and explained our training and exercise construct.
- Ensured intelligence training personnel met the Training and Doctrine Command's standards for instructors at combat training centers.
- Mentored and coached junior leaders on their military professional competencies.

Division Director of Intelligence (G-2)
25th Infantry Division, Schofield Barracks, Hawaii
04/2016 – 06/2016
GS equivalent: GS-14 Hours Worked Per Week: 60hrs
Supervisor: Colonel (retired) Richard Ullian
- Director of an organization comprised of over 100 personnel, and 6 intelligence occupational specialties.
- Responsible for staffing, training, and equipping the intelligence directorate for combat operations on the Korean Peninsula.
- Led the design and implementation of the largest intelligence certification exercise for subordinate brigade combat teams in U.S. Forces Command.
- Hosted foreign delegations from Thailand, the Philippines, and Japan, to showcase U.S. capabilities and support to partnership events across Southeast Asia.
- Provided intelligence briefs to the Commanding General, 25 Infantry Division, and other senior leaders across the Indo-Asia Pacific region.
- Performed personnel evaluations, talent management, and mentorship of subordinates and junior managers.

Strategist, Joint Staff (J-5)
Pentagon, Washington, District of Columbia
12/2012 – 06/2016
GS equivalent: GS-12/GS-13 Hours Worked Per Week: 50hrs

Supervisor: Rear Admiral (retired) Ronald Boxall
Okay to contact supervisor: Yes
Ronald.a.boxall@gmail.com
Cell: (703) 625-9725
- Researched, drafted, and authored a broad range of strategic documents for submission to the U.S. Congress to meet statutory requirements and answer Congressional requests for information.
- Led collaborative team efforts to represent the equities of the Services and the Joint Staff in three annual risk assessments of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. This included working closely with National Intelligence Officers on specific threat-related topics.
- Participated in the National Security Council's Special Plans Small Group at the Eisenhower building to ensure Joint Staff equities were included in the 2015 National Security Strategy.
- Researched and created strategic-level briefings for Mr. James Baker, the current Director of the Office of Net Assessment.
- Led the development and publication for the 2015 National Military Strategy and contributed to the drafting of the 2014 Quadrennial Defense Review.
- Planned, organized, and executed three Joint Worldwide Planning Conferences, which included the attendance of over 34 general and flag officers from all the military services and combatant commands.
- Independently researched and developed briefings on strategic topics for the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.
- Provided briefs to Principal Staff Members for Congressional delegations.

Division Chief of Intelligence Analysis and Production (G-2 ACE)
4th Infantry Division, Fort Carson, Colorado
12/2011 – 12/2012
GS equivalent: GS-12 Hours Worked Per Week: 50hrs
Supervisor: Brigadier General Richard Appelhans
Okay to contact supervisor: Yes
richard.t.appelhans.mil@army.mil
(315) 755-4516
- Led and supervised an organization comprised of over 50 intelligence analysts that researched and produced briefings and information papers to answer the intelligence requirements of the Commanding General, 4th Infantry Division.
- Designed and implemented the proof of concept to evaluate and test the Department of the Army G-2's Intelligence Readiness and Overwatch Concept.
- Planned and conducted training to prepare all personnel in the organization for their wartime mission.
- Performed personnel evaluations, talent management, and mentorship of subordinates and junior managers.

Intelligence Planner
4th Infantry Division, Fort Carson, Colorado
08/2010 – 12/2011
GS equivalent: GS-12 Hours Worked Per Week: 50hrs
Supervisor: Colonel (retired) Philip Deppert
- Planned the drawdown of the intelligence systems and capabilities in northern Iraq as part of the larger U.S. drawdown in Iraq.
- Coordinated across multiple staff directorates and external organizations to develop military plans and operations to defeat insurgent groups in Iraq.

- Provided briefs to the Commanding General, 4th Infantry Division, to inform his decisions and provide recommendations to the Commanding General, U.S. Forces-Iraq.
- Produced multiple PowerPoint briefs to inform and enable senior leader decisions.
- Served as a member of a collaborative team that developed creative solutions for military challenges and requirements.

Summary of Military Assignments prior 2010

Served in multiple management and supervisory positions at the GS-7 through GS-12 levels, with highlights being platoon leader and company commander. Responsible for the welfare and professional development of junior Soldiers and leaders, and responsible for the maintenance and accountability of between $30-$47 million worth of equipment. Planned and executed detailed training plans to prepare the unit for its wartime mission.

Education

School of Education & Health Sciences, University of Dayton, Dayton, Ohio
Current doctoral student working toward a Doctor of Education and Organizational Leadership.

School of Advanced Military Studies, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas
Master's degree in military operations

Webster University, St. Louis, Missouri
Master's degree in international relations

University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan
Bachelor's degree in political science and Chinese language studies

Volunteer Experience

Instructor, 3D Printing Workshop
Public Library, Harker Heights, TX
03/2023-02/2024
- Planned and designed a 2-hour workshop on the basics of 3D printing.
- Successfully conducted 6 workshops for over 30 participants.
- Advised the director of the library on ways to implement a 3D printing service at the library.

Instructor, Swing Dancing Workshop for Homeschool Teens
Colorado Springs, CO
06/2024-present
- Planned and executed a summer swing dancing workshop for homeschool teens

Language Abilities

French: 3 years of high school; conversational competency
Mandarin: 4 years of college; conversational competency
Japanese: conversational competency
Iraqi Arabic: self-taught conversational and military competency Others: self-taught greetings and phrases in Bulgarian, Finnish, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Lithuanian, Polish, Romanian, Spanish, Tagalog, and Turkish.