Fire Board of Appeals: Submitted

Introduction

Briefly introduce yourself and state your interest in serving on a specific Board, Commission, or Committee

I have been a proud resident of Colorado Springs for the past eight years and am deeply committed to our community's well-being. My active involvement in my children's elementary school, food bank volunteering and local initiatives reflects my dedication to making our city a safe and thriving place for all. Professionally, I serve as Director of Risk, Compliance, and Compensation, where I apply my experience in leadership, governance, and organizational growth. I am passionate about ensuring the safety of our citizens, and I believe my background, combined with my love for Colorado Springs, makes me well-suited to contribute meaningfully as a member of the Fire Appeal Board.

Relevant Experience and Community Involvement

Highlight any volunteer work, previous service on boards or committees, and community involvement that demonstrates your commitment to public service and the community.

Over the past eight years in Colorado Springs, I have sought out opportunities to actively contribute to the well-being of our community. I have formally volunteered with the Department of Veterans Affairs, supporting those who have served our nation, and have worked alongside local churches to assist families and individuals in need. I am also actively involved in my children’s elementary school, participating in events and initiatives that foster a strong, safe, and supportive environment for our youth. My commitment to public service is rooted in a deep passion for helping the most vulnerable members of our community. Whether it is providing hands-on assistance, lending my professional skills, or collaborating with others to create lasting solutions, I strive to make a positive impact. These experiences, along with my professional background in leadership, risk, and compliance, have prepared me to serve thoughtfully and effectively on the Fire Appeal Board.
