Introduction

Briefly introduce yourself and state your interest in serving on a specific Board, Commission, or Committee

My name is Davis Tutt, and I serve as the Senior Director of Sports Tourism and Olympic Engagement at the Colorado Springs Sports Corporation. I’m a fifth-generation Colorado Springs native and a proud graduate of Colorado College. My career began with an internship at the U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Committee and continued as an El Pomar Fellow; two experiences which deepened my connection to the region’s nonprofit and sports communities. I later returned to the USOPC to support national governing bodies and help coordinate Olympic Trials and sport leadership events. Today, at the Sports Corp, I lead efforts to attract and manage major events that drive tourism and economic impact across the region, including Olympic-affiliated competitions, national championships, and large-scale community festivals. In this role, I’m proud to represent Colorado Springs as a premier sports destination and collaborate closely with city agencies, tourism partners, and local NGBs to strengthen our identity as Olympic City USA. I’m passionate about using sport, culture, and community partnerships to elevate the city I’ve always called home.
