

Proclamation

Peace Officers Memorial Day

May 15, 2024

WHEREAS, on Peace Officers Memorial Day and during National Police Week, it is important that we commend the brave men and women of our law enforcement who selflessly serve and protect our community every day; and

WHEREAS, we also pause to remember the more than 26,000 peace officers across the country who gave their lives in sacrifice for their communities, including the 13 from the Colorado Springs Police Department; and

WHEREAS, we wish to honor those we have lost in the line of duty, as losing an officer is not just a devastating loss for their loved ones and department, but it is also a loss for our entire community; and

WHEREAS, our City remains committed to supporting our law enforcement, and honoring our fallen, by celebrating May 15th as National Peace Officers Memorial Day; and

WHEREAS, we will stand together as a community to show our peace officers how incredibly proud and grateful we are for their service.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Randy Helms, President of the Colorado Springs City Council, and I, Yemi Mobolade, Mayor of Colorado Springs, do hereby proclaim the 15th day of May as
