

Laura Nelson is a dedicated leader with the Apartment Association of Southern Colorado, where she plays a key role in supporting and advancing the region's rental housing industry. With a strong focus on advocacy, education, and community engagement, Laura works closely with property owners, managers, and industry partners to promote professional standards and effective housing solutions. Her commitment to collaboration and industry growth has made her a valued resource within the Southern Colorado multifamily community.