Interests & Experiences

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

As a Colorado Springs native deeply rooted in this community, I possess a profound understanding of its unique needs, challenges, and potential. With a keen eye toward ensuring our city's growth is both prosperous and sustainable, I am driven by a genuine commitment to preserving the beauty and integrity of our surroundings for generations to come. My experiences as a mother and devoted wife have instilled in me a sense of responsibility and foresight, qualities that I believe are essential for effective planning. By serving as a planning commissioner, I aspire to contribute my insights, dedication, and collaborative spirit to shape policies and decisions that foster responsible development, enhance quality of life, and uphold the values that make Colorado Springs a truly exceptional place to live, work, and thrive.
