R. Accessory Family Suites: Accessory family suites are permitted as an accessory use to a principal single-family detached dwelling and are subject to the following requirements:

- 1. Accessory family suites are permitted only within a single-family detached dwelling, and are not permitted in any other structure, including but not limited to, single-family attached dwellings, two-family dwellings, multi-family dwellings, or commercial buildings.
- 2. An accessory family suite cannot be located on the same lot where an accessory dwelling unit exists.
- 3. The total number of individuals collectively occupying both the principal dwelling unit and the accessory family suite can be no more than one family as defined in this code.
 - a. Affidavit Required: The owner shall complete and record an affidavit assuring the property owner's acknowledgement of the occupancy limitations as listed above.
 - b. No zoning enforcement action pursuant to section 7.5.1001, et seq., of this Code, may be brought against a tenant by the City for a failure of the owner to meet the one family requirement.
- 4. Off-Street Parking: A minimum of one (1) off-street parking space in addition to the minimum parking required for the principal structure shall be required.
- 5. Exterior Access: An accessory family suite may have a separate exterior access. Any separate exterior access shall be restricted to the side or rear of the principal structure. All accessory family suites with an exterior access shall have a thirty-six (36) inch wide clear access path from the front property line or from the property line where the principal dwelling unit gains its access. The clear access path may be gated and may share a clear access path with the principal dwelling unit.

6. Internal Connectivity: An accessory family suite must maintain interior access to the principal dwelling unit through either a common doorway or stairway. Interior accesses may be locked if an exterior access exists.

7. Maximum floor area: Floor area shall not exceed fifty (50%) of floor area of the principal structure.

8. Maximum height: Maximum height of the principal structure as determined by the zone district.

9. Setbacks: Minimum setbacks of the principal structure as determined by the zone district.

10. Design: Accessory family suites shall not involve design modifications to the exterior of the principal structure that indicates their presence from the front of the principal structure. Building additions shall be architecturally compatible with the principal structure. External stairs are not allowed to provide access to a second-story accessory family suite unless it is from a second-story deck.

11. Restriction on Subdivision: The accessory family suite shall not be sold separately from the principal dwelling unit, nor shall the lot on which an accessory family suite is situated be subdivided unless subdivision is permissible in accordance with all provisions of Article 3 and Article 7 of this chapter.

a. Before a building permit may be issued for an accessory family suite, the owner shall record with the El Paso County Clerk and Recorder a declaration of restrictions in a form prescribed by the Manager.

b. The declaration of restrictions shall prohibit the owner and the owner's heirs or assigns from selling the accessory family suite separately from the principal dwelling unit. Such restriction shall be binding upon and run with the land.

c. The declaration of restrictions shall lapse upon removal of the accessory family suite. Upon request of the owner and confirmation by the City that the accessory family suite has been removed, the Mayor shall execute a recordable release of the declaration of restrictions and provide the release to the owner. The owner shall be responsible for recording the release and paying all costs of recordation.

12. Accessory family suites shall be permitted in PUD zones unless expressly prohibited by the PUD zone ordinance. Accessory family suites shall not be included as separate from the single-family detached dwelling when calculating the density of a PUD zone.

13. Covenant Compliance: The provisions of this subsection do not supersede private covenants.
